

Cirencester Baptist Church Website Privacy Statement

Under Data Protection legislation the Trustees of Cirencester Baptist Church are the Data Controller and can be contacted by ringing 01285 643510 or emailing office@cirencester-baptist.org.

If you complete the 'Contact Us' form on this website we will only retain your name and details for as long as is necessary for us to deal with your enquiry. We will NOT pass on your details to anyone other than the person (or people) in our church who are best able to deal with your enquiry.

If you are concerned about the way your information is being handled please speak to our Data Protection Trustee. If you are still unhappy you have the right to complain to the Information Commissioner's Office.

Cookies

Our website uses cookies. Cookies are small files which websites store on your computer, and which contain various types of information about your visit to a website. Although cookies do not normally contain information about you personally, they can record information about how you browse the internet. Once you agree, a small file is added to your computer's hard drive which allows web applications to respond to you as an individual. The web application can tailor its operations to your needs, likes and dislikes by gathering and remembering information about your preferences.

Cookies on our website

Generally, we use cookies to help us administer this website and to improve the website's usability. We may also use cookies to identify which pages are being used most frequently. This helps us analyse data about webpage traffic and improve our website to tailor it to user needs.

Most web browsers automatically accept cookies, but you can usually modify your browser setting to decline cookies if you would prefer. You should consult the documentation of your web browser for advice on how to do this. Please note that restricting or disabling cookies may impact the functioning of parts of our website.

Cookies normally expire after a length of time which can vary from a few minutes to more than a year. Some cookies are 'session cookies' which are deleted when you close your internet browser or after a period of inactivity. Others are 'persistent cookies' which remain on your computer until their expiration date.
